MORE BUILDING

The St. Joseph Society Hall—Judge Vincent's Residence.

Localities—Personal—Items of General Interest.

An Interesting Interview.

Bishop Dunlop, having just returned from a month's trip into southern Arizona, a GAZETTE reporter availed himself of an opportunity to talk with him. The Bishop had quite a laborious trip in the interest of his church, traveling some two hundred miles in stage and experiencing the unpleasantness of being in the Indian country. He was in Nogales the day after the massacre, and says the accounts of it were greatly exaggerated. But three persons were killed, as he had ample means of knowing. Nogales is directly on the line of the two republics, one side of the street being in Sonora and the other in Arizona, while the depot itself spans the border. The Bishop met General Miles and was thrown a good deal into his company. He is fully persuaded that Miles is the right man in the right place, and will end the Indian troubles if it can be done. He is a strong, vigorous, healthy man, without pet ideas and prepossessions, but with the single idea of putting an end to the depredations. One of the greatest causes of alarm to the people of that section at the present time is the fear that Cook's Indian scouts having been armed and drilled, will themselves join Geronimo and thus increase the number and efficiency of his band. Many of the officers assured the Bishop that not an Indian had been killed by the scouts in the last twelve months. The general feeling is, however, that the new general will conduct matters differently.

And Still Another.

A. A. & J. H. Wise today sold to Judge Vincent for $1,300, lots one, two and three, block twenty-seven, corner Intercean and Seventh streets. These lots are known as the Jada lots and have long been considered among the most desirable lots in the city. Judge Vincent already has his plans and drawings for a handsome building, which will probably be of stone, though the material has not yet been fully determined on. There can be no doubt that the immediate neighborhood surrounding the San Miguel park will soon be to Las Vegas what Fifth avenue used to be to New York city.

Another Building.

The St. Joseph Society of our city has commenced the erection of a handsome building on North Pacific street. It will be twenty-four by seventy-five feet, and will be a hall for the use of the society, and the lower will be for rent. Surveyor F. G. Davis has laid off the lot and made the levels for them, and excavating began today.

To-Day's Weather.

Clear and bright.
Temperature: 7.00 a. m., 50°; 12 m., 78°; 3 p. m., 81°.

Localities.

Dr. North has rented one-half of the house in which the rabbi lives, on Main street.

Coors Bros. have just received a large order from Fort Stanton and another from Union.

Charley Wright is the next one who has done himself proud by buying one of Garth's cows.

At 1 o'clock today the gas was burning in the public lamp on North Pacific street, near Romero's stone warehouse. Somebody is neglecting his duty.

Regular meeting of the Romero Hose tonight at 7 o'clock at the Station house. Every member is requested to be present. J. C. Gruener, secretary.

Serafino Baca, one of our well known native citizens, died at his home on South Pacific street. He leaves a wife and large family of children to mourn his loss.

Harry Kelly was yesterday presented by the proprietor of the La Cueva fish wagon, with a very fine trout, said by judges to be the finest ever seen in this country.

The corner stone of the new Episcopal church will be laid with appropriate ceremonies Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. No doubt a large crowd will be in attendance.

A vote of thanks to Drs. Skipwith and Bayly has been tendered by the Ladies' Relief society for their kindness in gratuitously attending patients whom the society was caring for.

R. R. Bartram has received a letter from a Belgian banker with whom he had business relations in Kansas, making inquiry concerning suitable locations for a large colony of farmers.

The young man who accidentally shot himself a few weeks ago, nephew of L. M. Spencer, was able this morning to leave home and spend the day with his mother and aunt at Al Houghten's.

The Raymond & Whitcomb excursion passed through for the Spring about 2 o'clock this afternoon. There are ninety-one persons in the party, and they been gathered from all quarters of the east.

A telegram was received last night instructing that the body of George H. Baker, the cowboy, who was accidentally killed at Cabra Springs, be forwarded to New York, C. O. D. Such course is contrary to railroad regulations.

R. G. McDonald has on exhibition at his place of business, some very fine specimens of gold bearing ore from the Golden, New Mexico, mining district. The specimens are said to be unusually rich, and they certainly show gold in abundance even to an unpracticed eye.

The Las Vegas planing and saw mills today received their run of saw logs, numbering some 400 and expected to net about 80,000 feet of lumber. As usual some are to be found opposed to this enterprise, on the ground that the logs coming down knocked out a temporary acquia dam. The party having them in charge said dam the acquia and showed fight. The result was the logs came on their way bobbing up serenely.

The chronic kicker as a tourist is a nuisance. Nothing pleases him. If the train is late he is mad; if the officials are too busy attending to the interests of their business to answer foolish questions, he condemns the whole affair; if he is a little late getting his meals, his digestion becomes impaired and all who come near him are made to feel the influence of his wrath. It would be a good idea for all chronic kickers to remain at home and kick themselves.

Railroad Matters.

Benjamin B. Todd went on yesterday as night yardmaster.

Eighteen cars of fruit passed through yesterday from Riverside, Cal.

A car load of very fine hay for John W. Hill from Watrous has been claiming the attention of the transfer wagons today.

The big engine pulled eleven coaches over Gorieta mountain Thursday morning; the largest train that ever passed over the hill.

Superintendent Dyer came up from the south last night on a special train, and Trainmaster Rain came in this morning on the regular.

The train from the south this morning was brought in by one of the big engines. It consisted of ten coaches packed with passengers, but the giant drew it over the mountain with all ease. Going east from here the train was divided into two sections.

Deeds of Charity.

The number of destitute sick at present in the city is very large, and the resources of the Ladies' Relief society have been taxed to their utmost. Something must be done to increase the funds on hand, or the amount of suffering will be appalling. The suggestion of a lecture from Colonel Scott is a good one, and should be carried out at once.

A New Mining Law.

DENVER, May 6.—The course of the bill introduced by Congressman Symes, of Colorado, amending certain sections of the revised statutes in regard to the location and extent of mining claims will be eagerly watched by everyone interested in mining. The special merits as announced comprise enlarged area, with essential changes in the form of location, confer right to all mineral veins within the boundaries of a claim, and make side lines as arbitrary as end lines. The old requirement forcing locators to take five times as much length as width upon a vein is done away with, and consequently one-half of the location need not be entirely outside the trend of a vein as heretofore. If this bill should become a law it will give the original discoverers fuller rights than they have hitherto enjoyed, and will prevent and render impossible the ruinous litigation which has in times past retarded the growth and rapid development of our richest mining districts.

The Utes Reservation.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Senator Bowen offered today another amendment to his bill for removing the Utes from their Colorado reservation, providing that if these Indians refuse to be located on the Uintah Valley reservation, in no event shall the reservation be nearer than forty miles of the Colorado state line. This amendment, if adopted, will probably place the Utes west of the Colorado River, as there is nothing to prevent them from being located even far beyond that river.

Associate Justice.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The president today nominated to the senate James H. McLeary, of Texas, to be associate justice of the supreme court of Montana.

Two Idiots.

PARIS, May 7.—Henri Rochefort and M. Portalis fought a duel with pistols today. Four shots were fired by each contestant, none of which did any harm.
